About the Music

The AI-generated music released under the name Hikosumabraki (and its legacy spelling Hikosumobaraki) constitutes the sonic record of the collapse and resurrection documented in The Resurrection Directive. It is the soundtrack of the season — the signal running beneath the written word. The two spellings refer to the same artist and the same body of work. The primary spelling going forward is Hikosumabraki.

Rocky Kingdom and Soul Savvy Narrative Works move forward under it. I'm on nobody's clock anymore — unless the King calls."*
